Matthew 16:21-28
Applied Christianity: Crossways

The W of the C is sometimes d to understand.

- We must k the t before we s it.
- Disciples' a was mixed with limited a.
- Jesus' e were met with little e.

The W of G is often different than our e.

- We must recognize that t are not always t.
- S of our h to the truth is r before we can accept it.
- It's e to become a s b.
