Pastor's Column

As I type this, I have been made keenly aware by Bro. Charlie that tomorrow is Valentine's Day. As usual, he has already gotten everything ready so that he and Michele can celebrate their love. But I will not be outdone. I will be taking Sonya out tonight for our annual tradition where I will show her the Valentine's Card I would have bought for her if I had bought her a card. It is such a special time. In all reality, I have arranged for a very special gift that, unfortunately, will not make it to her in time for the holiday. But that's okay because if it is late enough, I can use it for a birthday present, too. Now, I know you ladies think that I am the least romantic person in the world, but the truth is that many years ago, we decided that we would not buy gifts for each other. Instead, we would buy gifts together – things that we both wanted and could use. This year, Sonya has decided that she wants a new rifle. Guys, I have the greatest wife in the world. I'm kidding about the rifle, but not about the fact that she is the greatest. Truthfully, I would try to give her anything she wanted – not to prove that I love her but because I love her. Men, I hope that your relationship with your wife is exactly the same because that is what the Bible tells us to do. "Husbands, love your wives just as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself for her."

And this pastor loves this church!

Basketball and the Super Bowl have kept us busy in youth over the past week. I promise that we still study the Bible. We have enjoyed our time together, and the relationships being built have developed a richer bible study experience. Pray for us over the next several weeks as I meet with leaders within the youth group for discipleship. My goal is to train them to be disciple makers. Thank you for your prayers and hard work for our teenagers. They need you.

God Bless,

Hunter

Together We Are Stronger!

God is doing amazing things here at First Baptist Church! As we are willing to stay focused on His Word and Will for our lives as individual members and work together to fulfill His commandments that were stated in Matthew 28:19-20

-("Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe everything I have commanded you, and behold, I am with you all the days until the end of the age.") -

I believe our Heavenly Father will continue to Bless us.

The writer of Ecclesiastes tells us: "Two can accomplish more than twice as much as one, for the results can be much better. If one falls, the other pulls him up; but if a man falls when he is alone, he's in trouble. Also, on a cold night, two under the same blanket find warmth from each other, but how can one be warm alone? And one standing alone can be attacked and defeated, but two can stand back-to-back and conquer; three is even better, for a triple-braided cord is not easily broken (Eccl.4:9-12)

If we all continue to seek God's Will and are willing to obey His Will and Word – We can work together and accomplish wonderful things for the Kingdom!
