

Plans Are Changing

Good afternoon, church family. Gov. Ivey has just announced a stay-at-home order beginning Saturday at 5 p.m. Because of this, the church office will be closed until the order is lifted. All of our staff will be working from home as much as possible. We can still stay in touch through our cell phones, e-mails, and social media. We will continue to serve you in every way that we can -- just as we have been doing these past few weeks. If you need us, call us. We can still pick up groceries, medications, and other needed supplies for ourselves, and we have volunteers ready to help YOU! Let us help you.

On another note, we will try to do our regular worship service on Sunday morning with only four or five people at the church. Following this Sunday morning, it will all be different, but we can handle this. I believe that we must obey this directive for the good of our people while at the same time continuing to minister to our community as best we can. Of course, this means our ministry to the community on Easter Sunday is cancelled.

We can do this because God is carrying us through. Keep praying, and know that your pastor loves you.
